ALL SOULS AND ADVENT TREE OF REMEMBRANCE

On Sunday 5 November at 6.00pm we shall be holding our annual All Souls' Service at which we read out the names of all those for whom we have taken funerals during the past twelve months. However, if you would like to remember and celebrate the lives of others who have passed away recently or in previous years, please record their names on the list on the cross pew so we can read their names out as well. You will also find forms on the cross pew to sign up for the Advent Tree of Remembrance, which records the names of those we have loved and lost, and which will be switched on at our Service of Light on Sunday 3 December at 6.00pm.

PLANNED GIVING CARDS

Attractive planned giving cards will be available at the door of the church for those who give financially to St Bart's in ways other than by cash or giving envelopes placed in the collection plate, for example by direct debit or standing order. If this applies to you, please pick up one of the cards and place it in the collection plate during the offertory so you feel included in the thanksgiving offered at every service for the financial generosity of the congregation.

Sunday 29 October 17 – Bible Sunday

The Collect

Blessed Lord, who hast caused all holy scriptures to be written for our leaning: grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of thy holy word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.. AMEN

Old Testament Reading – Nehemiah 8:1-4a, 8-12 (NRSVA)

All the people gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had given to Israel.<sup>2</sup> Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month.<sup>3</sup> He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law.<sup>4</sup> The scribe Ezra stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the purpose.

<sup>8</sup>So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.<sup>9</sup> And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, 'This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn or weep.' For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law.<sup>10</sup> Then he said to them, 'Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.'<sup>11</sup> So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, 'Be quiet, for this day is holy; do not be grieved.'<sup>12</sup> And all the people went their way to eat and drink and to send portions and to make great rejoicing, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.

New Testament Reading – Colossians 3:12-17 (NRSVA)

<sup>12</sup>As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience.<sup>13</sup> Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.<sup>14</sup> Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.<sup>15</sup> And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful.<sup>16</sup> Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God.<sup>17</sup> And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Gospel Reading – Matthew 24:30-35 (NRSVA)

<sup>30</sup> Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see "the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven" with power and great glory.<sup>31</sup> And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

<sup>32</sup> 'From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near.<sup>33</sup> So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates.<sup>34</sup> Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place.<sup>35</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.
