ANNUAL PAROCHIAL CHURCH MEETING

The Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM) of St. Bartholomew's Church will be held in the church on Monday 29th April 2019, in the church. Refreshments will be available from 7.00pm and the meeting will start at 7.30pm.

The APCM is open to anyone with an interest in St. Bartholomew's Church and we encourage everyone to attend and take part in this annual review. Voting, however, will be restricted to those who are registered on the Church Electoral Roll, which is in course of revision and will be published before the APCM.

This agenda for this annual meeting will provide you with a complete overview of the objectives, issues and running of the church and its activities. Andrew Johnson will give his review of the year and look ahead. Short updates will be presented by church officers and group leaders on their areas of responsibility and the contributions and achievements of their teams. The meeting will also include important elections of Churchwardens and Members of the PCC.

A folder containing the APCM Agenda, last APCM Minutes and the Financial Report is available for reading in church. Members of the Electoral Roll who are unable to attend the APCM are requested to register their apologies on the notice in the cross pew before the meeting.
